Award winning consumer electronics company, graciously honors the film industry's brightest and most talented stars. Oscar nominees and presenters to receive this season's hottest new gadget from MOBI Technologies, Inc.

Beverly Hills, CA. – February 21st, 2005 – After the parade down the magic red carpet, fashion feast, speeches, heart-felt acceptances and blow-out after parties of this year's 77th Annual Academy Awards, each nominee, and presenter can relive and share every moment with MOBI's Digital Photo Frame. MobiFrame is included in one of the years most anticipated and highly sought after gift baskets during every award season.

MOBI flawlessly blends expertise in consumer electronics, digital photo imaging and well thought out design with a new class of easy to use Digital Photo Frames. The Digital MobiFrame with 3.5" TFT LCD screen allows easy viewing of images stored on (SD), (MMC) or (CF) memory cards. Simply insert the memory card into the onboard slot, and select single picture display or create an automatic slide show. The built-in TV output creates fun, entertaining and lively picture shows by transferring images to any television. Digital MobiFrame is also designed with a USB port that allows images to be transferred between a memory card and a PC. Rotating brackets allows for vertical and horizontal image displays and silver housing design makes it a chic and eye-catching conversation piece.
